Equity Finance Mortgage (EFM[®]) addendum (continued)

Privacy consent

The Lender collects your personal information when you apply for a mortgage. The Lender then applies to the Insurer for lenders' mortgage insurance for that mortgage. The information is collected for the purposes of securing such insurance.

The Insurer uses your information to:

- assess the risk of:
 - providing lenders mortgage insurance to the Lender
 - you defaulting on your obligations to the Lender
 - you being unable to meet a liability that might arise under a guarantee, in respect of mortgage finance given (or to be given) by the Lender to another person
- administer or vary any lenders' mortgage insurance cover provided, including enforcing the mortgage in the place of the Lender
- conduct risk assessment and management involving securitisation, credit scoring, portfolio analysis, reporting, fraud prevention and claim recovery, and
- comply with legislative and regulatory requirements including the Privacy Act 1988 and the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

The Insurer may disclose personal information to:

- its related companies, whether in Australia or international
- the Lender
- reinsurers
- credit reporting and ratings agencies
- mortgage insurer
- parties for the purpose of securitisation
- a Guarantor or potential Guarantor
- its service providers (including marketing companies, data consultants and IT contractors)
- its agents, contractors and external advisers; your referees, including your employer
- your legal and financial advisers
- government and other regulatory bodies (e.g. the Insurance Council of Australia)

- mercantile agents if you default on your obligations to the Lender
- payment system operators, and
- other financial institutions and credit providers.

The Insurer may also need to seek from a credit reporting agency and use:

- commercial credit information (concerning your credit worthiness or history)
- consumer information, and
- collection of overdue payments.

The Insurer may also need to exchange information between credit providers and advisors. If necessary, the Insurer will share your information with a credit reporting agency.

You have a right to access any personal information that the Insurer holds about you. Sometimes there may be a reason why access will not be possible. If that is the case, you will be told why.

If you do not provide any of the information requested of you then the Insurer will not be able to issue the insurance.

The information collected in this form is required under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth).
